

Questions to consider when hiring a PERSONAL INJURY ATTORNEY

RESOURCES

- ☐ How many attorneys in your firm handle personal injury cases?
- ☐ Does your firm have attorneys who previously represented insurance companies, and do they understand why companies may agree to set aside more money on cases?

EXPERIENCE

- ☐ How many combined years of legal experience do your attorneys have?
- ☐ What leadership positions do your attorneys have within organizations for injury attorneys?
- ☐ Which news outlets have interviewed attorneys from your firm about legal matters?
- ☐ Do you have any client testimonials available or clients I could speak to for a reference?

RECENT RESULTS

- ☐ How many personal injury jury trials has your firm had in the last 12 months?
- ☐ What is the largest result your firm achieved for a client in the last 12 months?
- ☐ How much money has your firm recovered in total for your clients in the past 12 months?

PROCEDURES

- ☐ What procedures do you have in place to ensure cases move as quickly as possible without sacrificing value?
- ☐ How and when do you investigate insurance coverage and assets?
- ☐ Should my case require, is the firm willing and able to advance at least $100,000 in case expenses?

CASE SPECIFIC

- ☐ How long do you expect my case would take?
- ☐ Which experts have you worked with as witnesses in cases similar to this one?
- ☐ What potential weaknesses do you see in this case, and what are your plans to overcome them?
